

Q: What are the medical insurance policy benefits provided by our company?

A: Our company provides medical insurance policy benefits such as hospitalization expenses, pre and post hospitalization expenses, day care treatment expenses, ambulance charges, and coverage for critical illnesses.

Q: Does our company's medical insurance policy cover maternity expenses?

A: Yes, our company's medical insurance policy covers maternity expenses including prenatal and postnatal care, hospitalization expenses, and delivery charges.

Q: Does our company's medical insurance policy provide coverage for pre-existing illnesses?

A: Yes, our company's medical insurance policy provides coverage for pre-existing illnesses after a waiting period of 2 years.

Q: Is there any limit on the sum assured for our company's medical insurance policy?

A: Yes, our company's medical insurance policy has a limit on the sum assured, which varies based on the plan selected.

Q: Does our company's medical insurance policy provide coverage for alternative treatments?

A: Yes, our company's medical insurance policy provides coverage for alternative treatments such as Ayurveda, Homeopathy, and Unani, up to a certain limit.

Q: Can dependents be included in our company's medical insurance policy?

A: Yes, dependents can be included in our company's medical insurance policy, such as spouse, children, and parents, based on the plan selected.

Q: Does our company's medical insurance policy provide cashless hospitalization facility?

A: Yes, our company's medical insurance policy provides cashless hospitalization facility at network hospitals.

Q: What is the claim process for our company's medical insurance policy?

A: The claim process for our company's medical insurance policy involves informing the insurer within 24 hours of hospitalization, submitting the required documents, and filling the claim form.